

TJAG Special Announcement

A Message from The Judge Advocate General

Selection of CW5 Tammy Richmond as Incoming Chief Warrant Officer of the Corps

This fall, our current Chief Warrant Officer of the Corps (CWOC), CW5 Ron Prescott, will retire after a distinguished career spanning over twenty-four years of dedicated and honorable service to our JAG Corps, our Army, and our Nation. News of such transition is always bittersweet, for as we farewell CW5 Prescott, we have the opportunity to welcome a new CWOC.

I am honored to announce that CW5 Tammy Richmond will serve as our next CWOC. Currently serving as the Command Chief Warrant Officer of The Judge Advocate General's Legal Center and School (TJAGLCS), CW5 Richmond's distinguished record reveals an impressive breadth and depth of expertise earned by excelling at each stage of her career. After initially enlisting as a Legal Specialist (MOS 71D) and rising to the rank of Staff Sergeant, she transitioned to the Warrant Officer Cohort in 2004. As a Warrant Officer, her assignments include: Legal Administrator, XVIII Airborne Corps and Fort Bragg; Legal Administrator, 3rd Infantry Division and Fort Stewart; Detachment Executive Officer and Detachment Commander, Student Detachment, TJAGLCS; Senior Legal Administrator, 4th Infantry Division and Fort Carson; Senior Legal Administrator, III Corps and Fort Hood; Instructor/Writer, U.S. Army Warrant Officer Career College (WOCC); and Commander, Headquarters and Headquarters Company, WOCC. CW5 Richmond's operational deployments include tours to Kandahar, Afghanistan and Baghdad, Iraq.

CW5 Richmond holds a Master of Arts in Leadership and Management from Liberty University and a Bachelor of Arts in Management from American Military University. With technical expertise and exceptional leadership skills that have been repeatedly tested and proven under the most demanding challenges, she is the critical thinker, team builder, and trusted professional of the highest caliber that our Corps has come to expect in our CWOC—we welcome her as she joins and strengthens our Foundation. Her insight and commitment to improving our Corps by taking care of our people will ensure we remain ready for today's mission and transform to win in the future fight.

Please join us in congratulating CW5 Richmond, her husband Aaron, and their Family on this tremendous accomplishment!

STUART W. RISCH
Lieutenant General, USA
The Judge Advocate General